

RICHMOND POLICE DEPARTMENT GENERAL ORDER

NOTE: This directive is for internal use only, and does not enlarge an employee's civil liability in any way. It should not be construed as the creation of a higher standard of safety or care in an evidentiary sense, with respect to third party claims. Violation of this directive, if proven, can only form the basis of a complaint by this Department, and then only in a non-judicial administrative setting.

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Order is to establish the policy and procedure for the investigation of complaints concerning abuse, neglect or abandonment of juveniles. This Order consists of the duties and responsibilities for all members of the Department.

II. POLICY

It is the policy of the City of Richmond that all cases of child abuse, child neglect or abandonment of children are investigated by the Department of Social Services - Child Protective Services. The Richmond Police Department will assist Child Protective Services, when necessary, and will conduct a joint investigation of cases that come under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth's Attorney.

III. DEFINITIONS

CHILD ABUSE - Injuries, neglect or abandonment of a child less than 18 years of age including sex offenses caused by any person(s) responsible for his/her care.

IV. PROCEDURE

A. Whenever an officer receives a call to investigate a juvenile problem and the investigation reveals a suspected or actual case of child abuse, neglect or abandonment, the officer will:

1. During normal working hours, Monday – Friday, 0800 – 1700, contact Child Protective Services - Department of Social Services, at 646-0438.

2. On weekdays after 1700 hours or on weekends, contact the State Hotline at 1-800-552-7096 (Toll Free).

B. Special Information:

1. Any doctor, child protective services worker or police officer has the authority to take a juvenile into protective custody for a period not to exceed 72 hours. Except for good cause, such as holidays, that individual (any doctor, child protective services worker or police officer) must appear at the Juvenile Court the next available day. (VA Code §63.2-1517)
2. A State Hot Line number (1-800-552-7096) has been established to report all cases of child abuse, child neglect or child abandonment. This number is available on a twenty-four (24) hour basis and is for the use of all citizens.
3. Police officers are mandatory reporters under state law. In addition to any criminal investigation conducted, the officer must also report abuse or neglect to one of the telephone numbers provided in this order. Failure to do so constitutes a criminal offense punishable under VA Code §63.2-1509.
4. Officers will use his/her discretion in determining whether to notify DEC to request the assistance of 2nd Responders and Childsavers.
